

Arts on Terry Street Fair

The Long Island Museum is excited to announce that LIMarts will be participating in the second annual Arts on Terry Street Fair on Sunday, June 4, 2017 in the village of Patchogue. Last year's program was well received and we are honored to be invited to return again this year. This event is a collaborative effort between the Patchogue Arts Council, Inc. and Artspace Patchogue designed to bring together art from all over Long Island. We are thrilled to have LIMarts be included.

Space is very limited and, therefore, we will only be able to have between 10 and 12 LIMarts members participate. The LIMarts Planning Committee determined that the most equitable way to select participating artists was via a lottery system. Artists interested in participating, please email Alexandria D'Auria at development@longislandmuseum.org after reviewing submission guidelines and instructions below. You must be a current member of LIMarts to participate. If you participated last year, then you are not eligible for this year.

You must be available the day of the fair to deliver, set-up, sell, and break down your own artwork. The date is Sunday, June 4, from noon to 6 p.m.
