

Paint & Sketch at the LIM

Exclusive LIMarts Members' Opportunity

Saturday, May 18, 2019 • 10 a.m. - 5 p.m.
Museum grounds & Carriage Museum

Reception & artwork sale immediately following

The Long Island Museum excitedly invites you to participate in a plein air painting and sketching opportunity for LIMarts members only! Artists may participate in one of two ways; register to paint plein air on museum grounds or register to sketch in the Carriage Museum galleries (no paint permitted). Be inspired by the museum's historic structures and beautiful gardens! Capture the intricate details of the museum's world-renowned collection of horse-drawn vehicles!

The day's activities will include the opportunity to sell the artwork you created at a reception in the LIM Studio from 5-6 p.m. Artists are required to handle all sales. The LIM will not retain a commission. Light refreshments will be served.

Artists must supply their own equipment and materials.

Program is FREE but space is limited and pre-registration is required.

To register, contact Alexandria D'Auria at (631) 751-0066 x285 or adauria@longislandmuseum.org by May 6, 2019 • Raindate: Sunday, May 19, 2019
